- 25X1A 3. In late [REDACTED] Faich'eng Hsien (117-52, 24-27) was divided into five districts as follows:

2 District at Hai Kung (海豐)

3 District at Chiangwei (117-59, 24-18)

4 District at Paishuiying (117-49, 24-22)

5 District at Hai Ts'ang (海澄)

The magistrate of Haich'eng Hsien was KUO Fu-chou (郭扶周), aged 43, and the political commissioner was TS'AI Ch'ia (蔡家), aged 40. The chief of 3 District was WANG Chao-ben (王昭本), aged 33, and the political commissioner of this district was YEN P'ei-liang (嚴培良), aged 35. None of these officials were Fukienese.

5. In mid-January the mayor of Amoy was LIANG Lung-kuang (梁龍光). Two Amoy officials recently purged on charges of graft were Commissioner WU Yu-lei (吳玉來) of the Amoy Preparatory Commission for the Kuomintang Revolutionary Committee and HSH Chin-hu (許金福) of the Amoy Revenue Bureau.

1. Comment. The special district has administrative jurisdiction over several hsien.

2. Comment. [redacted] lists the eight sub-districts of the Fukien Military District, as of early [redacted]. Six of the commanders listed are apparently the same as the special commissioners listed here, and seven out of the eight headquarters are at the same places.

3. Comment. No characters or coordinates were reported for this place.

4. Comment. Paragraph 2 lists SHAO Ching-kuang and paragraph 3 lists KUO Fu-chou as magistrate of Haich'eng Hsien. Possibly SHAO replaced KUO.

5. Comment. P'u-t'ien Hsien was listed twice but with a different magistrate in each case. Possibly one of these men is magistrate of another hsien.

6. Comment. These are presumably local government districts under an administration setup separate from the special districts.

7. Comment. Information on the organization of this district, the 3 District, appears to be fragmentary and possibly inaccurate, judging from the information supplied on the 13 District. According to information on the 13 District, the chief should be under a commissioner and branch commissioner. [redacted]

8. Comment. The position of secretary is of lower rank than that of the district commissioner, branch commissioner, district chief, and deputy chief.
